

The Daily Gazetteer.

FRIDAY, APRIL 7. 1738.

11th 869.

The last Mail from Holland brought these farther Advices.

The following is the Translation of the Sentence of the Council of War at full Length, as it was pronounced against Major General Daxat, and the other Officers of the Garrison of Nissa, and ratify'd and order'd to be put in Execution by his Imperial Majesty.

In the first place, as to the General Daxat of Moretz; because that on the 16th of October last, he restor'd the Fortress of Nissa, of which he was Commander, to the sworn Enemy of the Christian Name, without staying till he was attack'd, without making any Defence, without any Necessity, and upon the bare Menaces of the Infidels: And because he has thereby forfeited his Honour, his Obligation, and his Conscience, done notorious Prejudice to his Imperial Majesty, and to all Christendom, fully'd the Imperial Arms, and rais'd the Courage of the Enemy, the said General shall be beheaded; Two thirds of the Charge of the Process shall be paid out of his Estate, and out of the rest there shall be deducted what is necessary to make good to the Emperor's Finances the Loss of the Ammunition and Provisions which were in Nissa, and fell into the Hands of the Infidels.

Colonel Humbracht, after having first taken an Oath de non Offendendo, shall be cashier'd with Infamy. Lieutenant Colonel Pinna, and Major de Buttler, shall be likewise broke, but without Infamy. The Captain of the Artillery, St. Martin, shall lie three Months in Irons, at the House of the Great Provost: And all the Captains, Lieutenants and Ensigns of the three Regiments of Maximilian of Hesse, Ogilvi and Schmettau, as well as the Engineers that were in Nissa at the Time of its Surrender, shall be confin'd at the House of the Grand Provost two Months in Irons; but it shall be alternatively, to the end that the Emperor's Service may not suffer by it. The Lieutenants shall undergo the same Punishment, one after another, for the Space of a Month: But all the Battalions of the said Regiments shall be exempt from all Guilt and Punishment. The Engineers who were in Nissa at the same time, namely, the Majors Rochet and Besselin; the two Captains Roscan and Lesselin, and the three Lieutenants Bendel, Walner and Bailly, shall, as well as the Officers of the Regiments, be kept under Arrest in Irons at the House of the Great Provost, each according to his Character: But the said Rochet, who is the chief or oldest Engineer, shall be broke with a Salvo to his Honour: As to Roscan, the Captain Engineer, as soon as he is broke, particular Proclamation shall be made, whether his Cashiering is attended with Infamy or not.

Finally, the Captains of the aforesaid Regiments, from Captain Humbracht, down to the youngest Captain, inclusive, shall, in Proportion to their respective Characters, pay one third of the Charge of the Process, as well as St. Martin, the Captain of the Artillery, and the aforesaid Engineers; and for this end the Quota of each Person shall be deducted out of his common Pay.

Signed

James Henry Baron de Suckow, President.
Ambrose Drenschner de Patzenthal, Auditor General.

The late Depositions of General Daxat, and the Papers which he deliver'd to the Imperial Commissioners, prolong'd his Life no more than 5 Days, the Execution of his Sentence, which was to have been on the 4th of March, O. S. being actually performed on the 9th. Being admonish'd on the 6th in Form to prepare for Death, he heard his Sentence with the same Magnanimity that he would have received the Menaces of the Turks; but after having publicly taken Leave of his Friends that were present, and sent his Respects to the Absent, he could not help saying, That Count Seckendorff had a very great Hand in his Misfortune.

Particular Letters from Belgrade say, that when he mounted the Scaffold, which was hung with Black, he declar'd, That in his Conscience he thought himself Innocent, and that were he to be in the same Case again, he should do the same thing. His Valet de Chambre having undress'd him, clapp'd a red Mantle over his Shoulders, when the Hangman at the first Stroke cut off almost one Shoulder, but gave two or three other Strokes before he sever'd his Head from his Body, and afterwards his Corpse was interred near the Place of Execution. He died in the Protestant Religion, but declared publickly to the Father Superior of the Jesuits, who attended him on the Scaffold, That if there was a Religion more certain than what he had hitherto profess'd, it was his Wish and Intention to die therein.

The last Advices from Constantinople say, that upon certain Reports spread of the Intrigues carrying on by some Ministers of the Divan, to make Peace with the Emperor and the Czarina, the Janissaries of the Guard having assembled in a tumultuous Manner, had resolv'd to send their Aga to the Grand Vizier to complain of it; but their Aga refusing to do it, they retired to their Quarters with great murmuring, so that 'twas fear'd that the next time they met, they would demand the Heads of such Ministers they don't like. The Preparations for the Grand Seignior's Military Equipage are stopp'd, so that 'tis believ'd he has alter'd his Resolution of making the Campaign in Person, but they work hard upon Prince Ragotski's Equipage, which will be very magnificent, and at the Expence of the Sultan. The Count de Bonneval has excus'd himself from serving either with or under that Prince, and chuses rather to be in the Army of the Bashaw of Bosnia, or that of the Grand Vizier, by whom he is very much esteem'd; but he does not desire the chief Command. 'Tis said, that by a Treaty which the Prince Ragotski has concluded with the Grand Seignior, he has engag'd to pay him an annual Tribute of 40,000 Rix-dollars as soon as he shall be in Possession of Transylvania.

As the Motion of the Turkish and Russian Troops on the Frontiers of Poland, give room to apprehend that the Republick may soon become one of the Theatres of War, Circular Letters have been sent into all the Palatinates at the Request of the Great General of the Crown, to exhort them to be speedy in furnishing their Quota's of Men, that the Army of the Kingdom may be enabled for Action in case of War.

They write from Milan, that the Count Bianchini has offer'd to advance to the Emperor 3 Millions of Florins in Hand, and 300,000 every Year, for the Farm of the Revenues of the Duchies of Parma and Mantua. The Inhabitants of the City of Mantua, have caused a large Silver Statue to be made, weighing 1223 Ounces, and representing Anselm their Protector, in Remembrance of their City's being deliver'd from the Dangers with which it was threaten'd during the last War.

The Advices from Vienna add, that the Count de Seckendorff, whose Affairs don't yet take a better Turn, has presented a Paper to the Commissioners of Inquiry, wherein he endeavours to confute the Remarks of the Velt Marshal de Khevenhuller, upon the Marches and Counter-marches of the last Campaign. 'Tis not certain, whether the Apartment fitting up at the Castle of Spielberg, be for him or for the late Burgomaster Partuska, who is lately condemn'd to Imprisonment for 6 Years.

Mean time the following Copy is handed about of a Letter said to be written by the Count to his Brother, who is a Privy Counsellor to the Margrave of Brandenburg-Anolzbach.

Dear Brother,

Don't be trouble'd at my Silence: I have Liberty of writing when and whither I please, but I have my Reasons for not doing it. God is just, my Conscience is clear, and my Conduct such, that nobody can with Reason reproach it. Be not alarm'd at my present Fate, I trust in God that my Innocence will soon be made appear. The Emperor is too equitable to oppress Truth. God is just, and his Judgments are righteous. I have a little Patience; for God does not relieve us when it pleaseth us, but when it pleaseth him. If we hope to enter into Paradise, we must be cleans'd; for we are mistaken if we think we are true Christians by crying out Lord! Lord! Something more must be done; we must suppress and banish Pride, Self-Love, Hatred, Envy, Revenge and Caprice. Praised be the Lord, who has taught me by this severe Trial how defective I am in those Duties without which my pretended Christianity, my Devotion, my frequenting of the Church, and my seeming Probity would not hinder me from falling into the Power of Satan. God be praised who has cast me down, humbled me, and rendered me contemptible in this World; for we cannot enter into his Kingdom but by good Report and evil Report, by Honour and Dishonour. Truth says, be faithful unto the End; considering there is nothing but what at length passeth away. The Lord's Name be praised for Ever, &c.

By a Select Number of Fair Dealers in MINERAL WATERS.

A Seasonable Caution to all PYRMONT and SPA Water-Drinkers.

THERE are frequently imported Quantities of false Waters, sold by divers Druggists and others, which may be distinguished by their having no Marks on the Bottles, or Seals on the Flasks: Whereas no Bottles are suffered to be filled at the Pyrmont Springs, without having Impressed on the Bottles, either in Whole or in Part (as in the Margin) the Arms of the Prince of Waldeck, in whose Country the said Spring is situated.

SO likewise the true SPA WATERS have the adjoining Impression (being the Arms of the Prince of Lüneburg, in whose Country the Spaw Fountains are situated) either impressed in Glass on the Neck of the Flask, or sealed with the same in Wax on the Cap of Leather, or both.

Such Pyrmont or Spa Waters as are not thus distinguished, are assuredly Spurious; and there are no small Quantities of such imported — which is the Reason of giving this Caution.

An Infalible CURE

For Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men, By Superlative ENLIVENING DROPS; Which in a few Days render both Sexes Profick in a most wonderful Manner.

Hundreds of Ladies who were deem'd incapable Barren, and very many who thought themselves too old to bear Children, have immediately conceived after taking three or four Doses of them only; and vast Numbers of GENTLEMEN by taking them, have presently become capable of propagating their Species, who before, thro' either Imbecility or Age, imagin'd it impossible.

They almost instantly renovate the vital Ferment of the Blood and Juices, rectify the languid State of all the Fluids, warm, fortify, and increase the Spirits, invigorate the Nerves, restore juvenile Warmth, and cause a sparkling Gladness and ardent Courage to flow in the Heart, and expand itself thro' the whole human System, so as sensibly to enliven and invigorate all the animal Faculties, and corroborate or strengthen the whole Body, as well as the Part appropriated to Generation, and do infallibly cure Barrenness in one Sex, and Impotency in the other, from whatever Cause formerly proceeding, as Thousands have experienced.

They are also pleasant to take, are Cordial to the Stomach, create an Appetite, and procure a good Digestion, beyond any thing known in the World. And are to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, Price 5 s. the Bottle, with Directions.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handsomeness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, fine, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly take away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughness, Morpew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become so incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as to cause Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and thro' brown, red or rough, to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and most charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the least Particicle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Laces, and is very agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it under various other Names, beware therefore of such Impostitions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to so many Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop above-mentioned at 5 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where else in England.
